Having problems with securing a new role?
Frustrated with not being shortlisted for roles that represent your experience and the career progression you want?

Recruitment processes have become more complex in recent years, with LinkedIn and other technologies fundamentally disrupting the way that employers and recruiters find good people like you.

Give yourself a genuine competitive advantage by working with a coach who can guide you through the minefield and support you to land your next job offer.

If it's been a few years since you last looked for a new opportunity, chances are what worked for you before might be out of date or need some refinement to reflect current recruitment practices.

If you're failing to get shortlisted or are getting offered the wrong kind of job for you, working with a coach can help you assess where you are going wrong, and how to hit the "reset" button and achieve success fast.

We work with professionals at all levels and in all sectors to help them articulate their experience to potential employers in a compelling way and to find the jobs that are perfect for them.

Choose from our fully comprehensive Get Hired! Professionals Programme for end-to-end support or our Lite version for those needing a lighter touch.

"I have been offered the Director of Finance role at a charity in Sussex and will be starting in mid-January. It looks like a great organisation and their mission is one that inspires me. They have recently been through some changes and the Executive Management Team will be brand new".

"Thank you for the advice and support you gave me this year. I know that this contributed to my success in the interview; your advice was invaluable".

S. Roebuck, Get Hired! Programme, Sussex

HOW CAN I FIND OUT IF THIS IS FOR ME?

Get Hired! is for those who know that they are spinning their wheels in their search - and would value rethinking their approach in a confidential setting with the support of an experienced career coach steeped in the most up-to-date recruitment practices.

The results you achieve will be determined by the level of focus and commitment you give to this programme. You will be more successful if you are open to being challenged, have the courage to step outside of your comfort zone and the discipline to follow through on actions arising from each call. You value learning and are committed to your own professional and personal excellence.

To find out more about how this programme works and whether it is suitable for you, we advise you to book a no-obligation 40-minute consultation by phone or Skype through our website (details below). All prospective clients are asked to complete and email our Get Hired! Assessment Form no later than 24 hours before their consultation so that our time on the call is focused only on the aspects of your search that you would like support with.
